Come ye citizens and strangers,
Miners, sailors and Western rangers,
Listen to the truthful story,
Of Frank Campbell of Victoria.
He in truthful words will tell you
Just the goods he has to sell you.
Mind ye now he isn't joking,
If you are fond of chewing and smoking,
Or if you are given to snuffing,
What he keeps does not need puffing.
He has brands will suit you really,
Tobacco users prize them dearly;
From all parts of the "Old Dominion"
He has stock, and his opinion
Is that none can suit you better
They will please you to the letter.
His Cigars, just from Ha vana,
Smoke in the most lovely manner;
Meerschaum pipes of style and fashion
Just to suit each taste and passion;
And it is in Canada stated,
His Tobaccos are celebrated;
Green Seal, Straight Cut, all go,
Big Lick, Big Cut, Wind Sap, also
All the Fine Cut Brands for chewing
That your teeth will never ruin;
Pipes to suit the inveterate smoker
Cards for playing sinch or poker,
Pipes of briar and stems of cherry
More than any man can carry;
It would take a week to tell you
All the things he has to sell you.
While in town you may be stopping
At the "Adelphi Corner" drop in;
Campbell you'll find at that location
Ready to give you information,
Or to see you well provided,
With what is by all decided,
The smoker's and the chewer's glory,
The best and cheapest in Victoria.

THE CITY CORPORATION THE CITY GUARDIANS.

The power of the Mayor and Corporation of this city to deal with the highways, etc., within the municipal limits is not open to question. The Victoria Municipality Act of 1862 conveyed to the Corporation the exclusive right to regulate and maintain streets, etc. Previous to the passage of that Act the right had been exercised by the Colonial Government. The power was reaffirmed in the Act of 1867 in the following clause: (Page 758, Consolidated Statutes, 1877:)

(2) To regulate the maintenance, repair, and construction of the highways, footpaths, public wharves, and bridges, situated within the said city.

Under the power conveyed in this clause the Corporation have acted for seventeen years past; and so zealously have they guarded the right that no citizen has been allowed to lay a sidewalk, cut a drain, make a crosswalk, or establish the line or grade of a street without having first obtained permission to do the same from the City Council or the Street Committee. Since the Provincial Government have surrendered the control of the city to the Ratepayers they stand in the same relation towards the city as the poorest individual. They can neither lay a sidewalk, cut a drain, establish a line or a grade without having first obtained the permission of the City Council. Their proposition to open Pandora avenue and Yates street is therefore clearly illegal. The work can only be authorized by the City Corporation, who have not been consulted, and who will probably apply for an injunction to restain the contractor, whoever he may be, from meddling in the matter. "Ill got, ill go." The $4,500 vote was conceived in iniquity and brought forth in sin; and it is not unnatural that the Government should adopt illegal measures to get rid of their responsibility. But the City Government will doubtless object very decidedly to the corporate limits being turned into a sort of Foundling Hospital or Baby Farm in which to wet-nurse the mistakes of the Provincial Government.

"COMMON SENSE."

The milk-and-waterish tone assumed by our contemporary yesterday in dealing with the arbitration case, is in marked and pleasant contrast with its blood and thunder fulminations of last week. We really must congratulate the organ upon the advent of reason to its benighted mind, and if it attended Dr. YORK'S lecture on "Common Sense" last evening it picked up points by the observance of which it may steer clear of embroilments which probably arise from its dense ignorance of the law. The position assumed by our contemporary yesterday exactly accords with that taken by Mr. COMPTON and Mr. ROBERTSON, with this exception. It promises to give the public the evidence as soon as the arbitration is closed. This it knows—or ought to know—cannot be done. The evidence can only be made public after it has been submitted to the Dominion Government with the finding of the Court. Then, and then only, will a newspaper have access to the documents. The organ seeks to let itself down gently when it asserts that its representative had as much right in Mr. THORNTON FELL'S office as Mr. FELL himself, while the arbitration was in progress. Supposing Mr. FELL to have obtained burglarious possession of the premises, then we must admit that the Standard, entering at the window, would have had as much right there as Mr. FELL entering at the door; but as an Englishman's house is his castle, and as the office in question is in Mr. FELL'S occupancy, we fancy that had the Standard's peculiar views of "mine and thine" been enforced, there would have been a sudden rise in the market value of heavy soled boots with extension toes. But, "all's well that ends well;" and we rejoice that our contemporary has come to its senses and resolved not to make a goose of itself any longer on this particular point.

FROM VICTORIA TO WINNIPEG.

Rev. Mr. Gordon's Trip.

The Globe's correspondent at Ottawa, on the 5th inst., obtained an interview with Rev. D. M. Gordon, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, who left this city on the 3d of June last to proceed via the Skeena River route to Canada. He speaks in the most favorable manner of the navigation along the coast of the Pacific Province. Port Simpson, which is open all the year round, is admirably situated as a point of departure for crossing the Pacific Ocean in so far as the capacity of the harbor and its shelter from storms are concerned, but in order to reach it by any possible system of railway a very large extent of unprofitable country would require to be traversed. Unless the consideration of the Asiatic trade be thought of supreme importance the harbor cannot be regarded as a suitable terminus for the Canada Pacific Railway. The climate of this part of the Province is generally humid, especially in comparison with the delightful climate of Victoria, Skeena River, like all those bodies of water which flow westward from the Rocky Mountains into the Pacific Ocean, has a rapid and strong current, but near the banks it is shallow enough for the greater portion of the distance to allow of poling the canoes, as the current is usually too swift to admit of paddling. Thirteen working days were occupied in journeying these one hundred and fifty miles. From the forks of the Skeena the party travelled on foot to Lake Babine, fifty miles distant, and thence by canoe up Lake Babine for one hundred miles. A seven-miles portage brought them to Lake Stewart, and a journey by boat down that sheet of water 40 miles landed them at Fort St. James, the Hudson Bay Company's central post in Northern British Columbia. From Lake Babine to Fort St. James the entire country was so gently undulating that a traveller could hardly realize when gazing upon it that he was traversing a land which on the whole had been so fairly described as a "sea of mountains." From Fort St. James the party went by mule trains to Fort McLeod, a distance of seventy miles, where, having procured a large boat, they went down the Pack River, which flows from McLeod's Lake into the Parsnip River, a distance of 17 miles. Thence they passed down the Parsnip, which is a great southern tributary of the Peace River, to a point where it joins the Finlay River at Finlay Rapids, and the amalgamated waters flow onward thereafter under the name now so well known. Immediately below the Finlay Rapids the Peace River turns southward and cleaves its way through the range of the Rocky Mountains. There it is about 150 yards in width, with a current flowing at the speed of four or five miles an hour, and at that rate it continues to flow throughout the whole length of the Peace River Pass from Mount Selwyn to Mount Garnet Wolseley, a distance of twenty-two miles. Peace River is navigable for several hundred miles by steamer. From Hudson Hope, a Hudson Bay Company's post at the foot of the Cañon, the Peace River district, properly so-called, begins. A belt of fertile soil stretches from the north bank of the river. In some parts it is continuously timbered, and in others lightly wooded with aspen crops, while still other parts are open prairie ready for the plough. This belt of fertile soil extends for a breadth of from twenty-five to seventy miles north of the river along its course for several hundred miles. South of the Peace River the fertile soil extends in a widening belt from Hudson Hope eastward to Smoky River, including the tract knowd as La Grande Prairie, which is exceedingly fertile. This rich plateau is for the most part as level as the prairie, and is on an elevation of eight hundred feet above the river. Until, however, actual experiment has been made it would be premature to characterize the great fertile tract of the Peace River country, by which is meant this plateau several hundred feet above the river, as thoroughly suited for the growth of grain. Summer frosts occasionally occur, but without extended observations it could not be said that they would prove fatal to the successful growth of grain there any more than they have injured a similar growth in the Saskatchewan Valley, where the Edmonton district is well known to be well adapted for the growth of wheat. The members of the party witnessed a slight frost during the latter part of August, but it was at a time when wheat would have been out of danger, and no serious injury could have been done. The general appearance of the herbage and foliage, as well as the character of the soil, warrant the expectation that this will prove to be one of the most valuable agricultural districts in the Dominion. Notwithstanding the severity of the season horses winter out of doors. The average fall of snow not being more than half a foot in depth it is not sufficient to prevent them from cropping the grass beneath it. Abundance of wild hay suitable for feeding cattle can be procured simply for the trouble of cutting it. Mr. Gordon expresses a belief that the adoption of the route for the Canada Pacific Railway via Yellow Head Pass and the Burrard Inlet district is unquestionably the best course which could be pursued to ensure the permanent success of the transcontinental highway.

[Per Steamer Isabel.]

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 5.—In the Supreme Court to-day, before Judge Macdonald, the jury returned a verdict for $7,000 damages for libel in the case of John Silver & Co. against the Dominion Telegraph Co. The libel, it appears, consisted of a dispatch published in the St. John Telegraph of Jan. 6th last, stating that the plaintiffs had failed with heavy liabilities. The statement was immediately contradicted in nearly every paper in Canada, although the statement was only published in the Telegraph. The Judge charged strongly against the defendants. The damages are considered exorbitant, and an appeal is to be taken to the Supreme Court of Canada.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—The Rev. D. M. Gordon, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Ottawa, reached home yesterday morning from his double trip across the continent, first by rail to San Francisco, thence by steamer to British Columbia, and home by the "overland route," passing through northern British Columbia, the Peace River district, familiarly known as the "Great Lone Land," through the Saskatchewan valley to Manitoba, and then home. He left Ottawa on the 12th of May. Consequently he was absent on his trip nearly six months.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—A report from Madoc yesterday says Rev. Father O'Reilly was found dead in bed at a hotel at that village yesterday morning.

Mr. Wm. Greenwood, 62 years of age, of the old established firm of Homes & Greenwood, carriage makers, St. Catherines, dropped dead suddenly on Queen street, in that city, yesterday about half-past one. He had just left his home after having dinner, and when opposite the Montebello Gardens he was seen to fall down. When assistance reached him, it was found he could not live, and he died immediately afterwards. The cause was heart disease.

Lieut.-Col. Aumond, an old and respected citizen of Ottawa, lies in a very critical condition.

Hon. Mr. Langevin is expected to be so far recovered to-day as to permit his immediate return to Ottawa.

At St. John's church, Ottawa, yesterday morning, Mr. R. G. Kimber, Usher of the Black Rod, was quietly united in marriage to Mrs. H. O. Burritt, widow of the Mr. H. O. Burritt, of New Edinburgh.

TORONTO, Nov. 6—Subscriptions are invited in England for £500,000 of Canada Central first mortgage at five per cent. bonds, payable in twenty years. The Canadian Government guarantee the interest.

The woman Lulu Ellis, tried at the Belleville Assizes for shooting and killing Duncan McIntyre, was yesterday acquitted by the jury. The shooting was not denied, the prisoner pleading justification.

There is a very loud complaint in Montreal over the numerous cases of burglary and vandalism which occur in that city, and much blame is charged upon the City Council for the spirit of parsimony it displays in maintaining an efficient police force.

The decision of the three judges of the Supreme Court of the five giving decision on the right of Provincial Governments to appoint Queen's Counsel being in favor of the view that such exercise of power was unconstitutional, Mr. Bethune, of Toronto, and Mr. Haliburton, of Nova Scotia, both of whom had been created Queen's Counsel by Provincial Governments, discarded the flowing silk gown and apeared in barrister's robes. Their conduct is highly commended.

There is not a single boat loading at the lumber docks, Ottawa. Lumbermen report that it is impossible to charter a vessel for love or money, the demand has been so great for the past six months.

The Reform Convention for West Durham has been called for Saturday next, owing to the issue of the writ fixing the nomination for the 17th inst. The Convention was first called for the 19th.

ENCIRCLED BY FLAMES.

A Sharp County, Ark., Man who has Caught Afire and is Illuminating the Country.

[Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette.]

Information reaches us that the Sharp County "fire man" is still burning. This affair is, indeed, very wonderful—wonderful in two respects—wonderful if true, and wonderful if not true. Wonderful in the not true sense because people of Sharp County, some of them, believe the story. At night, so the story goes, the man resembles a moving illumination. His nose is as a taper, and his eyes as red lanterns. Several nights ago he appeared to a party of fishermen. Coming up suddenly, accompanied by a glare and fearfully flickering lights that flared with the wind, he awakened the most augmented fear. He did not speak, but stood glaring at the men, and when they ran away he followed them.

A history of the man, as near as can be obtained, says that several years ago he was a well-to-do farmer. Although a kind-hearted man, he was exceedingly profane, and was never at a loss for an oath. A protracted religious meeting was sprung at a school house in his neighborhood. His wife, a very religious woman, persisted in attending, and at nights, when she came home, her husband would hear nothing else but the bright way in which some neighbor came through, or how devout Brother Perkins had proved himself. The man argued with his wife, and told her that there was no Christ, no God, no Devil. "Look," said he, "into the Christ matter. The Testament says that at the crucifixion of Jesus the world grew suddenly dark and the earth shook. The Grecian and Roman astronomers of those days were learned. Why did they not transmit accounts of such a remarkable phenomenon?" His wife, "simple-minded and unread," did not attempt to answer his argument, but with the characteristic faith of an Olintheus, continued to nightly sit within the sound of the Gospel. The man—Hamlin is his name, which fact should have been mentioned before—gradually lost his reason, and vowed that if his wife did not quit attending church, he would burn down the building. This threat, though made passionately, was more than a passing declaration. One night, after his wife had gone, Hamlin took a chunk of fire from the fire-place, and moved off toward the school-house. When he arrived, the minister was painting a glorious picture for the good, and giving to the bad a miserable chromo. Hamlin, unobserved, stole to one corner of the house. He blew the firebrand till it blazed. He laid it down and gathered splinters and dry grasses. Then, igniting them, he thrust the blazing fagots and grasses under one corner of the house. He fed the fire with sticks and chips, and when he saw that the fire would "go" he yelled demoniacly and dashed away through the woods. The congregation was startled by an outcry, but, hearing no repetition, again gave way to the influence of the speaker. Suddenly a glare. A flame spear had shot through the floor. The superstitious congregation crowded together like sheep, and the minister, himself frightened, ran from the house, followed by his entire flock. The house burned down, and when Mrs. Hamlin went home she found her husband tossing on the bed. He said he was burning up, and before water could be lifted to his mouth it became boiling hot. Suddenly he sprang out of bed. Every hair on his head seemed a blaze of fire. Currents of fire ran from his ears into his nostrils. With a wild yell he ran from the house, and ever since then he has been burning. There are hundreds who will vouch for this improbable story.

On Monday morning August Hartuig, an engineer in the Port Gamble sawmill, had his skull fractured, one shoulder dislocated and several ribs crushed in while starting the engine with a crowbar.

At Kalama a young man named Fisher amused himself by snapping caps on a shotgun, supposed to be empty, at Mrs. Millard and Miss Burt, a visitor, and frightening them. The ladies begged him to desist, but Fisher said he would snap one more cap and quit. This cap exploded the charge, which entered the heart of Mrs. Millard, killing her instantly. The scene which ensued when the husband entered the house and found the idol of his heart a corpse was terrible to witness. The deceased was a most estimable lady.

All the mills will soon be running on full time. Gamble started up this morning and Blakely is running night and day. The companies have been working on short time for over a year now, and having bought but few logs, their supply is about exhausted; the logging camps have been idle, so that there are few logs in the water. The movement in San Francisco will awaken all this business, and will thereby give employment to hundreds, and also indirectly to thousands of men. This advance is worth thousands upon thousands of dollars to us—is the first reactive step—is the advance guard of the times of prosperity which are surely coming to this Territory in common with the entire country.—Seattle Post.

LAST NIGHT'S LECTURE.—Central Hall was filled to overflowing last night by an audience assembled to hear Dr. York's lecture on Natural Religion as opposed to Religious Dogmas. The lecturer delivered a very eloquent discourse in which he contended that man can be perfected and saved by an observance of the laws of natural religion; that hell is made by man by his own violation of those laws and that heaven can be obtained by obedience to them. Dr. York was frequently accorded rounds of hearty applause and at the termination of his discourse announced that this evening he will lecture on Inspiration and to-morrow evening on Evolution.

THE RIFLE AND PISTOL.

TERRIBLE AFFAIR ON STORE STREET.

A WOMAN SHOT BY A MAN!

Who then Takes Poison and Shoots Himself Three Times!

Yesterday about noon a shocking affair occurred in Johnson street ward. A mulatto woman named Mrs. Cavalhao, who keeps an Indian trading establishment on Store street, near Johnson, was deserted by her husband about twelve months ago, and employed a mulatto named Isaac H. Verlin to assist her in looking after the business. It was her habit to attend auction sales and during her absence Verlin looked after the store. Some months ago she desired to purchase a lot of clothing, and Verlin, who had some money laid by, advanced her the required amount. A dispute subsequently arose between the two as to the amount loaned on that occasion—he claiming that he gave the woman $200, and she fixing the amount at $100, which she offered him; he refused to accept and laid claim to the contents of the store. Last week, wishing to rid herself of the troublesome customer, Mrs. Cavalhao advertised in The Colonist the business for sale. This step excited Verlin very much and yielding to his threats and entreaties she withdrew the advertisement. On Wednesday night Verlin again demanded $200. The woman said that for peace sake she would pay him that amount; but that she must sell the stock off to raise it. Verlin grew very angry at this and drawing a revolver pointed it at his debtor's head. She fled, and yesterday morning at 11½ o'clock swore out an information against him for pointing the pistol at her. About half-an-hour afterwards, in company with Mr. S. P. Mills and Duncan Finlayson, of the law office of Drake & Jackson, Mrs. Cavalhao proceeded to her store. Verlin was in the act of opening the doors. Mr. Mills entered first, followed by the woman and D. Finlayson. Mr. Mills demanded the key. Verlin turned and walked to the rear of the store, behind some shawls that were hanging up. In an instant he returned facing the party and walking towards them. When about ten feet distant he raised a rifle loaded with shot, and pointing deliberately at the woman, fired. The charge entered her thigh. She tottered and ran screaming out of the store to the sidewalk, and across the street, followed by Mr. Mills. The assassin was then seen by Master Finlayson, who was still in the store, to place a bottle to his mouth and drink the contents. He then rushed out after the woman and drawing a small seven-chambered revolver fired once at her as she was being assisted, begging piteously for protection, into a store by Mr. Mills. Verlin then put the pistol to his right temple and fired once, the blood gushing out and covering his head and face. He then ran up Cormorant street, followed by Messrs. Mills and Finlayson, who raised a hue and cry, and by several men who happened to be passing. He turned north at Government street, crossed Herald street, and entering an empty lot on the southeast corner stood at bay. Some of the pursuers, being warned by Mr. Mills that the man had a pistol, threw stones to disable him. He paid no attention to the missiles, and after standing motionless for two or three minutes opened his vest and fired twice with the revolver into his side. He then walked behind a fence where he was presently found by an Indian lying on the ground. A crowd of several hundred persons soon gathered about the man, who seemed perfectly cool and collected. The pistol was found by his side with three chambers loaded. A full length photo. of Mrs. Cavalhao was taken from a pocket of a Cardigan jacket which he wore. Both were handed to the police, who soon after arrived. Before the police came on the spot Verlin addressed the representative of The Colonist and begged him to take down a statement, which the reporter did, as follows:

"My name is Isaac H. Verlin; am a native of Montigua Bay, Jamaica. That store owes me $200. I want to be buried with part of the money, the rest to go to Jessie Verlin, my sister, who lives at Montigua Bay, Jamaica. I owe Mr. Roderick Finlayson $20. Pay him. A suit of my clothes is in pawn at the shop in Government street. I want to be buried in that suit of clothes." In answer to an inquiry, "Did you take poison?" he replied, "Yes, arsenic," and retched and vomited freely. Dr. Hanington by this time appeared and examined the man. He found two wounds in the left side and one on the right side of the head, in the temple. One bullet was extracted from between the muscles of the right side, having followed a rib around. Another was traced downwards towards the muscles of the left side, and the bullet in the head could not be felt, as it had passed downward and lodged behind the left jaw. He was sent to the Royal Hospital, where Drs. Matthews and Davie examined him and pronounced his wounds, though desperate, not necessarily fatal. The woman, who was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, was also attended by Dr. Hanington. She was shot in front of the right thigh about three inches below the abdomen, with a charge of No. 8 shot, three of which entered the thigh, missing the femoral artery and bone and lodging in the muscles. The thickness of the woman's clothing saved her from death. Pieces of a flannel petticoat were carried into the leg by the charge. She is doing well and will probably recover.

Soon after Verlin had been taken to the hospital Hon. A. F. Pemberton went there with Sergt. Bloomfield and Mr. W. Leigh, but the assassin, though able to converse and perfectly sensible, declined to make any statement.

A VERY numerous congregation attended at St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday morning to hear the Requiem Mass on the mortal remains of the late Mr. James Burns. At the termination of the impressive service, which was performed by Father Leroy, the cortege formed in front of the sacred edifice and followed the hearse to Esquimalt, where the body was placed on board the steamer Dakota and shipped to San Francisco for interment.

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

THURSDAY, Nov. 20.

William Gilbert, on remand, charged with having unlawfully and feloniously appropriated to his own use the sum of $210, the property of Chas. C. Bartlett of Port Townsend.

Mr. Robertson, Q. C., appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Theo. Davie for the prisoner.

F. A. Bartlett, deposed—I am acquainted with the prisoner who has been captain of the schooner Winifred, engaged in freighting on Puget Sound ports; when the Winifred last left the Sound she belonged, so far as I know, to Gilbert; the prisoner has transacted business with my father and myself; he has bought and sold produce for us, carried money for us and performed other business for us; he was always paid for carrying freight for us and frequently for collecting money for us; about three weeks ago I as clerk for my father gave the prisoner a note for $210 to collect from Mr. A. Johnson of Nanaimo, by whom the note was drawn; I have paid out and receipted for my father for the last three or four years; after I gave the prisoner the note he left for Nanaimo with the schooner; I do not know what became of the note; Gilbert made no report to me and did not pay over the money.

To the Court—I instructed the prisoner verbally to collect the note and forward the money to us; if he had made a charge for collecting we would have paid him. We have always paid him whenever he has made charges for his services of a similar nature.

To Mr. Davie—There was no binding obligation on the prisoner to collect the money; he was simply employed by me to do so and was our agent for that purpose and no other.

Henry Saunders, Johnson street, deposed that about two weeks ago the defendant arrived on board the schooner Winifred from Nanaimo; the schooner had a cargo of wheat which Gilbert said he had taken from the Sound to Nanaimo where he had paid duty on it; he did not tell me from whom he got the wheat; I bought it for about $100, which was paid part in cash and part in trade; the sale took place about 10 days ago.

Philip J. Hall deposed—I met the prisoner last Saturday week in this city; the schooner Winifred was then in the harbor and I went down to look at her because Gilbert said he wanted to sell her; not sure whether she had her cargo on board or not; she had not on Monday the 10th inst. when I closed the bargain for the purchase of the vessel; Gilbert is still in charge of the schooner and will run her on shares; I bought her for $600, but did not pay any of my own money for her; I got an advance on a bottomry bond; she has changed her flag and that is what these people are mad about (laughter); she is a nice little schooner, too, and I don't want to sell her; I have not received the money on the bottomry bond yet; when it is paid it will be received by Gilbert through a third party; the schooner is already registered in my name.

To Mr. Davie—I gave a promissory note to Gilbert for the $600 and secured it by a mortgage or bottomry on the schooner; I bought her to go sealing next spring; Gilbert was to go as captain and I was to supply all the goods required; she was to have sailed last Thursday for Fort Rupert; I knew nothing of this charge until last Saturday when the warrant was issued for Gilbert's arrest.

John Collins, a hand belonging to the schooner, deposed that it was contemplated that the vessel should leave on Thursday evening last; he did not know for what destination; he had seen the prisoner on Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning and evening. In conversations with the prisoner nothing had been said about the prosecutor's claim.

Sergt. Bloomfield testified that he arrested the prisoner who stated that his name was "Smith;" witness replied that he had a warrant for one Gilbert and that he believed him to be the man; the prisoner thereupon said "that's my name," meaning, as witness thought, that his name was Smith; when the prisoner got to the gaol he said that he was an Englishman and "had got the best of them Yanks" and that they were mad about it.

Superintendent Todd deposed that he was present in Court last Monday and heard the prisoner admit that he had received the money for the note and also remarked that he had had no time to pay it over and that it had never been demanded from him.

The Magistrate said that he did not consider the evidence of the last witness was sufficient to prove the receipt the money.

Mr. Robertson said that if that was His Honor's opinion he would have to ask for a remand till Monday to produce the witness Johnson, from Nanaimo.

Mr. Davie said that the evidence as to receipt of the money was quite sufficient as the voluntary statement of a prisoner was evidence against him and that the receipt of the money was not disputed. He was then prepared to show that the charge was not one of which a criminal tribunal could take cognizance and that it was best for his contention to be disposed of at once as a decision would probably put an end to the case and avoid unnecessary expense and delay.

His Honor concluded not to enter into the proposed discussion at present and stated that he should grant the remand.

Mr. Wangenheim, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, stated that the prosecutor boarded at his establishment during Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday last; the prisoner was in and out on the two last days, but witness had never seen him in company with the prosecutor.

The case was here adjourned.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

AFGHANISTAN.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A Calcutta dispatch says: The principal event of the past week has been the junction of the Cabul and Jellalabad columns, effected at Kutty Singh Thursday. This junction having been effected, the Khyber and Jagdalak route will become the sole line of communication with Cabul. Everything is going on quietly at Cabul. The English troops are housed in the Shirpur Cantonments, which are very comfortable. Winter seems to be setting in early, and nine degrees of frost have already been registered.

The suspicion which rested on Yakoob Khan, and which was temporarily removed by his joining General Roberts at Kushi, is again settling down on him. It has been discovered that on the night before the battle of Charasiah, he was visited in his tent by Naib Mahomed, who commanded the enemy the next day, and it is also stated that a plan for his escape from our camp has been found out. Yakoob Khan is now practically a prisoner, and has been removed from Hussang to Shirprar, under escort of the Ninth Lancers. All his attendants, except four, have been dismissed. A sentry is constantly on duty inside his quarters, and strong guards are placed outside.

The mystery as to what has been done with the bodies of Major Cavagnari and his companions is not yet solved.

Our relations with the tribes are assuming a more satisfactory aspect.

Preparations continue to be pushed forward in India with undiminished vigor. The Sukkur and Dadur Railway is open for engines nearly to Jacobabad, and is being constructed at the rate of over a mile per day. The position of other powers is necessarily one of reserve on a question which primarily concerns only England and Turkey, and in which marked interference would tend to embroil rather than clear matters. Still, as regards Austria and Germany, it may be taken for granted that their influence is being exerted in support of the demand for the beginning of reforms.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A cabinet council to-day was hastily called by telegraph. The council sat over an hour. All the ministers were present except Viscount Sandon and the Duke of Richmond. The statement was made that a Paris correspondent of the St. Petersburg Novoe Vremya had held an interview with Lord Dufferin, at which the latter had expressed some opinions he had with regard to the status of England Russia toward Turkey, which were significant.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12. — The semi-official newspaper, the Journal de St. Petersburg, and the Golos consider that Beaconsfield's speech was more intended to produce an impression at home, in view of the approach of the general election, than abroad. The Journal de St. Petersburg considers that Beaconsfield's expressions afford proof that the British public lean toward peace. The Golos says: Beaconsfield's tone was so lowered as to almost amount to renunciation of all that he and Salisbury had previously said. The Novoe Vremya says: Beaconsfield's silence on Eastern affairs marks his failure at Constantinople.

The press generally remark upon Beaconsfield's abstention from attacking Russia and the recent remarks of some friendly English newspapers.

The Czar replied that he could not come himself, but the Czarovitch would visit the Emperor.

RENO, Nov. 17—A respectable citizen named S. M. Oakes was killed last night at 10 o'clock by Mrs. Dr. T. N. Snow. The man was very deaf and called to get the doctor, who was away, to go and see his children. Mrs. Snow could not tell who it was and called out to him, but he failing to hear did not answer. He walked up and down the porch for over half an hour, stopping to rattle the door as he passed it. Mrs. Snow kept calling and her three children crying from fear excited her more. She said at last in as loud a voice as she could, "Go away or I will shoot through the door." He paid no attention and she shot, striking him in the breast. He stepped out into the street and felld, ying almost immediately. The community blamed Mrs. Snow but very little. Oakes was a large property holder. He left a wife and family.

The Warbling Pinafore or the Musical Sausage.

Historical Sketch—Its effects on the Mental, Moral, Physical and Harmonical Tendencies of a People.

BY J. HEYWOOD.

[Copyright secured in accordance with the Act of the Canadian Parliament, 1879.]

The Warbling Pinafore or Musical Sausage was the original conception of E. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, whose ideas have been adopted, improved, embellished and brilliantly illuminated by the author of this little sketch. It was composed expressly for H. M. S. Pinafore and is now extensively used in the British army and navy. No ship goes to sea or army takes the field without a supply. The secret of the manufacture being patented the inventor imparts the information that into each sausage is introduced a NIGHTINGALE'S TONGUE. These delicate morsels are obtained only with great difficulty and after the expenditure of large sums of money; but the sausage is still sold cheap. Adelina Patti, the reigning Queen of Song, will never undertake to sing the part of Rosina in "Il Barbiere" without having first fortified herself with a delicate repast of Musical Sausages, then no words can convey an idea of the exquisite purity of her voice; always mellow, always equable, which vibrates without effort and each note of which expands itself like the bud of the rose. The mellow sweetness of her voice, so rich and pure that every note is like a pearl, honey sweet and silver toned; her voice rings out full and clear like a siver bell; the clearness of her notes, the precision of her intonation, the fertility of her invention and the facility of her execution are displayed in brilliant flights and lavish feoriture; the case with which she sings is perfectly captivating and the neatness and elegance of her enunciation, combined with the sweetness and brilliancy of voice and perfect intonation, render her execution faultless. Its effects are ravishing. She is a captivating Rosina, charming, exquisitely delightful, and can warble like a thousand nightingales. Her singing of the lesson song at the pianoforte in particular is given with extraordinary power and effect. Her Rosina has never been equalled since the sunny days of the brilliant Malibran, the bewitching Sontag and the glorious Alboni. Her execution of the pretty mockingbird is one of the most perfect specimens of vocal power ever heard. The warbling Pinafore or Musical Sausage may be eaten with benefit and pleasure at any hour of the day or night, the only direction being to brown nicely before serving, and when eaten it will bring joy, peace and happiness to the family circle and cause all to raise their voices in ecstatic euphony. It is like a thing of beauty—a joy forever, and the oil of gladness to bruised hearts. A meal of these Sausages will cause crying children to smile through their tears and keep them singing throughout the day. When evening closes round the household the whole family will warble themselves to sleep, their last song being "Oh! what Pain it is to Part with Thee"—meaning, of course, the Pinafore Sausage.

"German Syrup."

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities as BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine were distributed free of charge by Druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the throat and lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that GERMAN SYRUP will cure them. The result has been that Druggists in every town and village in the United States are recommending it to their customers. Go to your Druggists and ask what they know about it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. three doses will relieve any case. *

The Reason Why.

My reason for buying Cooking and other Stoves and Parlor Grates at the Albion Iron Works is because I can purchase them there at prices much less than they can be imported for. The quality of the goods is equal, if not superior, to the imported article, and by buying them I get my money back, if not directly I do so indirectly, because the money I pay for an Albion Stove is kept in the country. Do not let unprincipled dealers sell you the imported article when you can help to save the country by buying Stoves, &c., at the Albion Iron Works, Store street, or of any respectable dealer. Examine for yourself and take no other. *

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff.)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretionsof the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousand of persons testifiy to its marvellous good effectsand wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—diphtheria, fever, croup, ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa, and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, cancer, toothache, meningitis, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Chol era was CHLORODYNE.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. 'To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always righ to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d. and 11s.

DR. SPINNEY, well known as the founcer of the Montreal (C. E.) Medical Institute, and late Proprietor of the SPINNEYVILLE INFIRMARY would most respectfully inform his patients and the afflicted generally, that he still continues to treat chronic and nervous diseases with unparalleled success.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

It matters not what you troubles may be, come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourselves whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will tell you that, for he will not undertake a case unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

Parties at a distance wishing treatment, by sending $25 and a minute description of their troubles will receive in return a full course of treatment securely packed so as not to excite curiosity.

DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit Five Hundred Dollars for every case of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

FAMILIES ARE IN THE HABIT OF GIVING orders to Butcher Boys when taking meat to their houses to get them 25 or 50 cents' worth, or whatever amount it may be, of Heywood's Sausages, because they want to get a first-class article; but in place of sending my sausages as ordered, the butcher sends the kind he manufactures, which are known as Butchers' Sausages, and palms them off as mine for the sole purpose of injuring my business and profiting himself by supplying an inferior article. To-day two parties—whose names I shall not mention—brought to my shop sausages represented to have come from me that contain chunks of gristle and beef as large as marbles. My Sausages are chopped by steam, cut very fine and made of PURE PORK. Look out for imposition. Genuine Pinafores have no beef in them.
